Chairman's Report

Mick requested an update on the teaching awards. Louise Hamilton has had her visit from the evaluating team and is one of three in her category to go through to the regional finals to be held at The Sage on June 17th.

Coraline Magot received a certificate to acknowledge her work in the NQT category.

Staff and students sent a card to thank the PTA for funding the French drama group

6th Form improvement estimates are still being awaited

The County Durham Foundation were unable to provide funding towards uniform, but Mike Bettison who has more experience of the fund may be able to suggest a suitable community related project for the PTA to consider

The cost of house bands will be £1000.

Treasurer's Report

Caroline was not present.

Quiz Night and Future Events

Quiz Night seemed to be successful with a good and more varied turn out. Costs, takings and profits to follow.

The next scheduled event is the AGM and presentation. Suggestions for this included showing the 3d room to those who have not had the chance to see it, information about the House system and how it will run and more information on the Text Points system, which is currently being revamped again.
